About the IBSS Online service

The International Bibliography of the Social Sciences (IBSS) is a large interdisciplinary research database covering all aspects of Economics, Political Science, Sociology and Anthropology. The IBSS has been compiling bibliographies since 1951 and now boasts a database containing over 1,700,000 records. Updated weekly, the IBSS provides references to the most recent research in the social sciences. Access to the IBSS is available at http://www.bids.ac.uk and is free to members of higher education institutions in the United Kingdom. An ATHENS username – available from your library - is required to access the IBSS.

How to search on IBSS Online

For the very best results, use the advanced search which offers more options for controlling your searches. The following guidelines are for use within the advanced search option.

To limit your search to Economics, scroll down and click on Economics in the disciplines drop-down box. The advanced search option also has drop-down boxes to help you limit your search by language, document type and publication year.

At the top of the search page, enter a word or expression in the "Search for" field. The system will find and display all occurrences of your specified word or expression in any title or abstract, or in the IBSS list of controlled terms (keywords). You can also choose to run your search on titles only.

You can control the subject of your search using the following short-cut keys. You can also combine these short-cut keys to further control your searches:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Short-cut key</th>
<th>Type:</th>
<th>To find:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>?</td>
<td>privat?ation</td>
<td>privatization and privatisation</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

IBSS Online also allows you to search on journal details titles, volume and issue numbers and ISSN numbers), and on book details (titles and ISBN numbers). You can also perform searches on authors using the format Name Initial(s) (e.g. Smith_D) and corporate authors (e.g. Bank of England). You can get help with your searches at any time by clicking on the help button, or by clicking on the orange-coloured links beside the search boxes.

Display and results

Each record can be expanded for full bibliographic details including abstracts where available. The full text link button will lead you to the full text online if your institution has a subscription. For the records that interest you, simply click on the button to mark them, then click on email results to send the list to yourself.
